Memphis Is Again Hit by Violence

By DOUG STONE
Associated Press Writer
MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Seven white persons were burned early today when three homemade firebombs were tossed into a tavern as racial violence continued in Memphis, police said.

Police said the bombs exploded in the Red Lantern Lounge hours after a 3-year-old Negro boy had been struck and killed by a police cruiser en route to another firebombing.

It was the third successive night of violence, disorder and vandalism which followed the death a week ago of a black teen-ager who had been arrested after a police chase. The district attorney has ruled his death a homicide.

Officials said five of the seven remained hospitalized.

Police inspector John Barger said he was uncertain whether the firebombing of the tavern was related to the death of Robert Reed Jr., 3.

Barger said some witnesses told police the persons who threw the bombs were white. But other witnesses said they were black, police said.

Barger said the Reed boy was killed when a police car answering an emergency call turned a corner and the child darted into its path.

The boy's aunt, Mrs. Mary Washington, said she had just picked him up at the home of relatives to return him to his parents.

Passage of Bond Issues to Create More Jobs

Residents of Hope go to the polls Tuesday, November 9, to vote on two bond issues which if approved could revolutionize industrial development in this area. Approval will assure 340 more jobs at a minimum. Both bond issues total $5.1 million.

With one plant that employs 85 persons just getting into production, Hope Foods, Inc. which processes and cans chicken, and groundbreaking held this week for Spears Carpet Mill, Inc. which will employ 175, brings to 600 the number of jobs in new industry.

One bond series to be decided is for construction of a new plant, announced officially Thursday, by Tennessee Forging Steel, Inc. which will employ 240 persons initially. The $1.5 million bond issue will build the 311,000 square foot structure on 40 acres in the Proving Ground near Oakhaven. An option was taken on 20 more acres.

The other bond issue is for $3.6 million for Permaneer Corporation, formerly Wynnewood Corp., to convert its plant, also in the Proving Ground area, to produce a panel board which the firm has been manufacturing and marketing elsewhere for years. When complete from 75 to 100 more employees will be added to present 100.

Under present plans chips will be furnished by Georgia Pacific of Crossett and the local plant will make finished panel board for itself and Georgia Pacific. There were indications from sources here that the two new plants to be financed by the bonds are almost sure to result in one or more other plants locating in this area.

Under Arkansas Act 9 bonds issued in no way pledge the credit of Hope and Hempstead County. Purchasers of the bonds will be secured only by contract with the company involved.

Thursday, October 28, will be a big day in Hope with dedication of Corn Belt Feed Mill and Hope Foods, Inc. chicken processing plant.

Governor Dale Bumpers will make the dedicatory address. He and many other dignitaries will be present.

Says Economy Took Step Backwards

WASHINGTON (AP) — The nation's economy slowed in the July-September quarter, with output rising at a 3 per cent annual rate, the Commerce Department said today.

Gross National Product, market value of the nation's production of goods and services, increased by $16 billion during the third quarter, but only half of the estimated 6 per cent growth was in terms of noninflation dollars.

But while the economy's growth rate slowed, the rate of inflation as measured by GNP also slackened, dropping to 3.3 per cent, the lowest this year.

In the second quarter, inflation rose at a 4 per cent rate of increase and the economy grew by 4.7 per cent in terms of noninflation dollars.

The department blamed the economic slowdown on what it called the "correction of steel inventories."

This meant that steel inventories, which ballooned in the early part of the year as a hedge against a possible strike, declined sharply in the third quarter.

In 1964 Corn Belt became a totally owned subsidiary of The Kroger Company, the third largest retail food chain in the U.S. with 1500 stores in 21 states. With this access to Kroger market outlets, Southwest Arkansas has a bright future producing and marketing food products.

Governors Returning From Russia

BUCHAREST (AP) — A group of American governors ended a two-week visit to the Soviet Union and Romania today and left for Western Europe and New York.

The governors spent eight days in the Soviet Union and five in Romania. They met with a number of officials, including Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin and Romanian President Nicolae Ceausescu.

The group was headed by Gov. Warren H. Hearnes of Missouri and included Marvin Mandel of Maryland, Dale Bumpers of Arkansas, William G. Milliken of Michigan, John A. Love of Colorado, David Hall of Oklahoma, Stanley K. Hathaway of Wyoming and Luis A. Ferré of Puerto Rico.

Angler Caught by Busloads

LEWISTON, Calif. (AP) — The angler was happily filling his basket with salmon on an isolated part of the Trinity River when he rolled two big buses jammed with people.

They were the entire California Board of Forestry, its top aides and an employee of the state Department of Fish and Game.

They said Thursday they took a brief break in their tour of the Trinity River watershed to take down the man's name for the local game warden to write up a citation for illegally fishing in a spawning area. They withheld his name from newsmen.

Temperance Group Profits

PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — The 17-room mansion where Civil War Gen. Neal Dow mapped his campaign against "old demon rum" has been turned over to his spiritual descendants, the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

The dedication Friday will be the highlight of the Maine WCTU's two-day annual convention.

Dow, who operated a tannery, has been hailed as "the father of prohibition" for his role in persuading the Maine Legislature in 1846 to enact the nation's first temperance law.

Food Cost Dip Slows Rise in Living Costs

Cloudy Skies for Game

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Partly cloudy skies and temperatures near 70 are forecast for Saturday's football game between Arkansas and North Texas State.

Winds should be northeasterly 10 to 15 m.p.h. for the 2 p.m. kickoff.

By NEIL GILBRIDE AP Labor Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The biggest drop in food prices in four years sharply slowed September's over-all rise of living costs in the first full month of President Nixon's freeze on prices and wages, the government said today.

Grocery prices fell one per cent and the decline in automobile prices also helped to hold down last month's consumer price average, said the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

The government's Consumer Price Index, measuring prices of food, clothing, housing, transportation, medical care and recreation, averaged two-tenths of one per cent higher—about half the average monthly rise so far this year—the bureau said.

The reports included some price hikes from before the freeze, which began Aug. 15, and the exact effect of the freeze on over-all living prices could not be precisely measured, the report said.

The rise brought the price index up to 122.4 in September, meaning it took $12.24 last month for every $10 worth of typical family purchases in the base period four years ago.

The bureau also reported that average weekly earnings of some 45 million rank-and-file workers dropped 27 cents to $128.76 because of shorter average work week.

Arkla Insists Rate Increase Necessary

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Witnesses for Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. told the state Public Service Commission Thursday that unless a proposed rate increase for industrial customers was approved, there would not be an adequate supply of gas for Arkla customers.

The prepared testimony was submitted to the PSC in support of the company's application for an increase in the rates charged its industrial customers in Arkansas. A hearing on the proposed rate increase will be held Oct. 26, but the PSC asked Arkla to submit its direct testimony in advance.

The testimony also said that an increase in the cost of natural gas was inevitable whether or not the proposed rate increase was approved by the PSC.

Arkla is seeking an average increase of 20 per cent in its industrial gas rates. The company contends that it cannot adequately supply its customers unless it is allowed to build a pipeline to new gas supplies in the Anadarko Basin in western Oklahoma and the Texas Panhandle, and that money cannot be borrowed to build the pipeline unless the utility increases its earnings by raising rates.

Judge Named Head of Pay, Price Board

By GAYLORD SHAW
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP)—President Nixon selected U. S. District Judge George H. Boldt of Washington state today to head the tripartite Pay Board which will control the wage increases American workers receive during the Phase 2 of the administration's anti-inflation program.

He named Jackson Grayson Jr., dean of Southern Methodist University's business school to head the companion Price Commission.

And Nixon immediately told the two boards he wanted them to undertake the fight against inflation "without institution of massive controls."

Presidential Counsellor Donald Rumsfeld said Nixon also told the boards in an informal White House session that they must make decisions "that are fair and just and will invoke public support."

The boards will be doomed to failure, Nixon said, if they "rely too much on government sanctions."

The 15-man Pay Board is composed of equal numbers of labor, management and public members—with the five public members expected to cast the swing votes in charting standards for wage hikes after the Phase 1 freeze expires Nov. 13.

All seven members of the Price Commission, which will decide how much businesses may raise their prices, are from the public.

Nixon selected five union leaders, including AFL-CIO President George Meany, as labor representatives, and he selected a group of corporate executives as business members.

Poachers Kill Rare Chamois

AOSTA, Italy (AP) — Poachers who killed nearly 300 rare chamois and steinbok in the Grand Paradis National Park early this week during a three-day strike by park wardens won't get another chance this weekend.

Another three-day walkout of wardens was called off Thursday: the 64 wardens got the wage increases they demanded.

The slaughter in the park—a 140,000 acre game preserve in the Italian Alps—caused a sensation in Italy. The damage was estimated at $240,000.

U.S. Troops Pull Out of Shell Range

By HOLGER JENSEN
Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — U.S. troops pulled out of the only American artillery base on the Cambodian border today after 28 days of North Vietnamese shelling.

The Americans left Fire Base Pace—and their four big guns—to the South Vietnamese garrison that had shared the frontier position with them.

Associated Press correspondent George Esper reported from the field that helicopters took about 115 infantrymen and 85 artillerymen out of the base half a mile south of the Cambodian border and 85 miles northwest of Saigon. He said two Americans were left with the guns and other equipment, and several U.S. advisers remained with the South Vietnamese.

Maj. Richard Gardner, a spokesman for the U.S. Command, said the two 155mm and two 8-inch guns could not be airlifted with the GIs, and the enemy has cut the only road.

Two of the guns are temporarily out of action, one because of a mechanical breakdown and the other from a direct hit by enemy mortars.

"They will remain in custody of the South Vietnamese until the road is secure enough for a convoy," said Gardner.

He added that the artillery battery was taken to Phu Loi, 11 miles north of Saigon, "to begin standown prior to going home." The infantry company was taken east to Fire Base Timbuktu, 85 miles northeast of Saigon.

The evacuation came at a time when the border fighting appeared to be easing up, and action elsewhere in South Vietnam was reported at a low level.

A few hours before the Americans left Pace, the camp was hit by fewer than 15 rockets and recoilless rifle shells. The barrage wounded several GIs.

The U.S. withdrawal left two South Vietnamese artillery batteries at Pace and government paratroopers operating around it.

South Vietnamese troops have been doing all the ground fighting in the border campaign but have had heavy U.S. artillery and air support.

Elsewhere in the war, the U.S. Command said a medical evacuation helicopter crashed early today 60 miles south of Da Nang, killing four American crewmen and two South Vietnamese soldiers who were being taken to a hospital. An American adviser and a South Vietnamese interpreter were injured, the command said.

Bank Turns to Floating Rate on Loans

NEW YORK (AP) — The nation's second largest bank has inaugurated a fundamental change in the method of fixing minimum charges on business loans, replacing the fixed prime rate with a floating rate tied to interest levels in the open market.

First National City Bank of New York, the nation's second largest announced the change Thursday. Irving Trust Co., another large New York commercial bank, made the same announcement a short time later, but most other money center banks said the move required further study.

Edward L. Palmer, chairman of Citibank's executive committee, said that, effective Monday, its "base rate" on business loans to its most credit-worthy corporate customers would be pegged on 90-day commercial paper.

Commercial paper is unsecured corporate notes sold to investors in the open market.

Palmer said the new base rate concept should respond more quickly to changes in the demand and supply of credit as determined by competitive market forces.

Citibank said the new base rate would apply to any existing term loan where there was provision for a fluctuating rate.

Asked if the new system might have any effect on interest rates for automobile, home improvement and other consumer loans, Palmer said, "Consumer rates are highly competitive to begin with."

"We feel there is a need recognized in many quarters for a bank commercial loan rate that is more immediately sensitive to market forces than the existing prime rate system," Palmer said.

The fixed prime rate system, in effect since 1934, has been criticized by some bankers as outmoded, too inflexible and vulnerable to political attack.

APPOINTMENTS (From Page One)

a little bit for everybody," Bayh said.

Kennedy said he is pleased "that the President has pulled back from the brink he was approaching," an apparent allusion to the fact neither Powell nor Rehnquist was among the six possible nominees Nixon had submitted for screening to the American Bar Association's Committee on the Federal Judiciary.

Kennedy had called the list "one of the greatest insults to the Supreme Court" in its history.

Bayh led the fight that ended in defeat of Nixon's nominations of two Southern judges, Clement F. Haynsworth Jr. of South Carolina and G. Harrold Carswell of Florida, for an earlier vacancy on the Supreme Court.

Selection of Powell and Rehnquist obviously caught many senators by surprise. The day before Nixon's suddenly scheduled address to announce the appointments, key Senate sources reported the President was on the verge of nominating Herschel H. Friday, a Little Rock Lawyer, and Mildred L. Lillie, a Los Angeles judge.

But the ABA's 12-member panel on the federal judiciary, meeting in New York, reportedly concluded late Wednesday that neither Friday nor Mrs. Lillie deserved appointment to the Supreme Court. An urgent meeting of presidential advisers was held in the White House Thursday morning.

White House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said it was on Thursday morning that Nixon decided on Powell and Rehnquist, but he said the President "pretty well had these two in mind" over the last 8 to 10 days.

One upshot of all the speculation that grew out of the leaks of names submitted to the ABA committee for investigation was a decision to end ABA screening of potential nominees in the future.

Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell sent a letter to ABA leaders, even as Nixon was announcing his nominations, saying, "The only fair and proper course is to resume the long-standing practice of submitting the attorney general's recommendations directly to the President."

Explosion Kills 12 in Scotland

GLASGOW, Scotland (AP) — Howling gales hampered rescue workers today as they worked through wreckage of the shopping center where a gas explosion Thursday killed at least 12 persons.

"We're not sure how many are still missing, but there are four or five who cannot be accounted for," said Asst. Fire Chief Robert Campbell.

Police said another 59 persons were injured by the mid-afternoon blast, many of them seriously. Most of the victims were women.

Ronald Parker, chairman of the Scottish Gas board, said it was the "worst gas accident ever in Scotland. At this stage we just don't know what happened."

The government ordered an investigation.

Workmen had been trying for two days to locate a gas leak reported by residents along Busby Street, in the prosperous Clarkston Toll district of Glasgow, Scotland's commercial center. Thursday was pay day for many in the city, and Busby Street, where the shopping center was built six years ago, was at its busiest when the gas exploded. It destroyed 15 one-story shops.

Doctors, nurses, police, firemen and 40 ambulances rushed to the scene. Police ordered complete quiet so they could find persons trapped beneath the rubble. For five minutes nothing was heard but the cries of the injured and buried.

A little girl, her tattered doll in her arms, found her mother half under the wreckage. Before rescuers could reach her, the woman was dead.

One man died walking his dog. Another was decapitated. Four women in the middle of the road were tossed onto the sidewalk but survived. The owner of a bakery in the shopping center could find only three of his six female assistants.

Hard Stand on Criminal Law Is Expected

By BARRY SCHWEID
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court could be expected to take a harder stand on criminal law if Lewis F. Powell Jr. and William H. Rehnquist are confirmed to take the seats vacated by Hugo L. Black and John M. Harlan.

President Nixon, in announcing their nominations, described Powell and Rehnquist as judicial conservatives and indicated he hopes they will redress "the balance of power" within society back toward "the peace forces."

This is "law-and-order" talk. Their records and background indicate that both the soft-spoken, aristocratic Powell and the younger Rehnquist are apt choices of an administration with that aim in mind.

Powell is close politically to Sen. Harry F. Byrd, D-Va., Rehnquist to Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz., and Deputy Atty. Gen. Richard G. Kleindienst. Goldwater and Byrd, to a lesser extent, are virtual folk-heroes to conservatives. Kleindienst is one of the toughest law-and-order exponents in the Justice Department.

Neither Powell nor Rehnquist has been a judge, so there are no rulings and opinions to probe for insights into their philosophies. The best sources, then, would appear to be what they have said and written.

Powell, a 64-year-old Virginian, said in 1965 as he stepped down as president of the American Bar Association: "The key problem is one of balance. While the safeguards of a fair trial must surely be preserved, the right of society in general and of each individual in particular to be protected from crime must never be subordinated to other rights."

In a recent article he described as "standard leftist propaganda" allegations that repression of civil liberties is widespread. He supported government wiretapping of "the individual left without a warrant and said it is "sheer nonsense" to claim that dissent is suppressed and free speech denied. This suggests that Powell may not be so chary as Harlan of electronic surveillance or as sensitive as Black to allegations of threats to free speech.

Rehnquist, 47, has been instrumental in developing the Justice Department's position that the president has an inherent right to use wiretaps against domestic radicals. He has called radical protesters "new barbarians" and once criticized the Supreme Court as lacking "common sense" in criminal cases.

Like Powell, then, he probably will support the administration as it seeks to win court endorsement of its wiretap policies. There is no sign, either, that the 1st Amendment will find in him a new champion.

As they reach the threshold of the court, the old liberal majority once headed by Earl Warren as chief justice is already shattered. Only Justices William O. Douglas, William J. Brennan Jr. and Thurgood Marshall remain of the framers of landmark rulings safeguarding the rights of people accused of crime.

In the center position, with considerable voting influence, are Justices Potter Stewart and Byron R. White, dissenters from major criminal-law rulings but occasional supporters of the Warren majority on selected issues.

On the right are Chief Justice Warren E. Burger and Justice Harry A. Blackmun, both put on the bench by Nixon and consistently reluctant to upset a conviction, invalidate a legislative act or chart a new judicial course.

Powell and Rehnquist appear more closely in tune with Burger and Blackmun than with either of the two other groupings. Their nomination makes emergence of a "Nixon" court that much more imminent.

AF Sergeant Charged With Espionage

TYNDALL AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. (AP) — An Air Force master sergeant arrested in an espionage case reportedly involving the Soviet Union believes the military system of justice will vindicate him, his attorney says.

"The man's not guilty, and it's not that hard of a case to show he's not guilty," said Air Force Capt. Clyde W. Russell Jr., who is defending M. Sgt. Walter Perkins, 36.

Perkins, a 19-year Air Force veteran, is charged with intent to pass classified information to unauthorized persons. The Defense Department, which announced the arrest Thursday, said there was some Russian involvement but would not elaborate.

The Air Force said the information was taken from the Air Defense Weapons Center at Tyndall, responsible for all advanced air defense training.

Perkins, father of four was the ranking noncommissioned officer at the intelligence division of the center and had access to classified material relating to the nation's defense, the Air Force said.

Arrested Monday, Perkins also was charged with giving false official statements about the destruction of classified documents.

"He's very upset over it," said Russell. "But he believes in the military justice system and that it will vindicate him."

Hank Basham, Tyndall's director of information, said the arrest was the first of its kind at the base near Panama City, in the Florida Panhandle. The facility is the only weapons center of the Aerospace Defense Command and has a military-civilian population of 5,000-6,000.

Basham would not say whether any other base personnel were involved in the case.

quarter as steel companies got rid of their surplus inventories. The department said third-quarter GNP reached a seasonally adjusted annual rate of $1.059 billion, according to the preliminary figures announced. Final GNP figures will be compiled next month.

Sales increased by $20 billion in the third quarter, but this was offset by the $4 billion drop in steel inventories.

The new report gave the Nixon administration, which is seeking to spur economic growth to cut into unemployment, little to brag about. However, Nixon has predicted the economy will show a strong upsurge in the last four months of the year.

The Commerce Department said consumer spending increased $11.25 billion in the third quarter and outlays for services climbed $5.25 billion. Automobile purchases were up by $3 billion, possibly because of Nixon's proposal to repeal the automobile excise tax.

The report provided the administration some hope that consumer spending may be beginning to pick up. The savings rate of Americans, which has been well over 8 per cent of disposable personal income all year, fell to 7.7 per cent.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

TO LIVE IN FEAR...

Dear Helen:
I am the mother of an 11-year-old girl who is an honor student and has won several awards. She is mature for her age, yet I must treat her as I would a five-year-old. Here's why:

The home we lived in for the past seven years has been taken by Urban Renewal, and we've been moved to a really terrible district. In the month we've been here, there has been five rapes, and one resulted in the death of a ten-year-old girl. Another victim is still in the hospital.

My daughter resents it when I insist on walking with her almost everywhere, especially in the evening, and taking her up and down on those frightening elevators—we're on the tenth floor.

I can't keep her locked up in our apartment, and I'm wearing myself—and her—out with all this protection. Her father is long gone.

We're on a list for a village apartment, but it may take years. Meanwhile, we fight off rats—and the human kind are worst.

Helen, how can you bring your child up to believe in society when you must make her so afraid that she won't step out of the door alone?—MRS.M.M., GHETTO, U.S.A.

Dear Mrs. M.:
I wish I had an upbeat answer to your question, but I haven't. I can only print it with the hope that someday, somehow, urban mothers and children can live without constant fear.

Meanwhile, keep on writing letters - to the mayor, your councilman, the newspaper, the police commissioner, your state assemblyman, and get other concerned mothers to join you. Before you say that complaints from the ghetto are never heard, remember your letter made a national column. You have the gift of expression. Don't waste it!—H.

Dear Helen:

I need a painless, quick, lasting cure for a sister-in-law who always pops in at dinner time.

Stella must have radar when it comes to food. Preparing and serving dinner for four children and a husband is hectic enough without this 100-pounds-overweight divorcee gossiping and complaining all the way. She never cooks for herself, so all her meals come out of cans, restaurants, or our place. I can't, in good conscience, invite her to eat with us because she's always on a diet and I can't cope with her "no-no" list from W.W., her physician, reducing salon, hypnotist and psychiatrist. But, still she sits and watches us eat.

Most often she says, "Oh no, I can't stay, and then ends up with a heaping plate of "just tastes." I've tried changing our dinner hour but she must be psychic. Whenever I see her driving up, my blood starts to curdle. Why couldn't she come in the afternoon, or later in the evening? Or once a month?

She's my husband's only relative so I can't be mean, though I know he doesn't like her dinner visits any more than I do. I've made little cracks about her "nose knowing" when there's food, but all she ever asks is why I bite my fingernails. Help!—FRYING

Dear Frying:
If you can't level with the lady, then why not make the dinner hour so uncomfortable she'd prefer to spend it elsewhere? Trip over her feet, spill gravy in her lap, give the kids permission to play records extra loud, put on a battle or two, scream a lot, greet her with, "I'm so glad you

ALAN WAYNE RATELIFF

Alan Wayne Rateliff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Rateliff of Hope, has enlisted in the U.S. Air Force and will report for training in February 1972. He is a native of Hope and graduated from Sherman, Texas High School where he received the American Creed and congratulations from 4th District of Texas Congressman Ray Robbers.

While in the Boy Scouts he received the Certificate of Appreciation from Pack 419, RAF, Lakenheath, England and was an honorary member of the 493rd Tactical fighter Sq. there.

His father, Master Sgt. Kenneth Rateliff, son of the late C.A. (Lum) Rateliff retired August 1 after 21 years in the Air Force. He had served in the Korean and Vietnam wars. Mrs. Rateliff, the former Norma Jean Harden of Hope, is also retired from the Air Force.

came—can you babysit for us tonight?"... And find her a man, if that's possible.—H.

Dear Helen:
You mentioned something about a husband joining the "men's auxiliary of N.O.W." Men are full members of N.O.W., who vote, hold office, etc. This is where N.O.W. parts company with most women's liberation groups. It welcomes men in equal positions and is attracting more and more males who see that liberation from old sex role stereotypes will help everyone.—B.H.

Dear B.:
I stand corrected: Gentlemen, be seated—equally.—H.

Opening lead—♦ Q

By Oswald & James Jacoby

North's bid of three clubs after his Stayman two-club was a slam try in his system. South accepted because of his sound no-trump opening and North continued to the heart slam.

South won the diamond lead, drew trumps and went after clubs. If clubs had broken he would have been able to discard dummy's third diamond and play for seven, but clubs didn't break.

Undaunted, South played dummy's ace and nine of diamonds and West was on lead.

West had discarded a spade on the third round of clubs and now had what appeared to be a hopeless choice between leading away from the king of spades or leading his last diamond to give South a ruff and discard.

It looked like a hopeless choice, but after deliberation, West saw that it couldn't hurt him. South was going to make the trumps separately no matter what happened so the ruff and discard wouldn't do South a bit of good. West led his last diamond. South ruffed in dummy and could find no better discard than his last club. Then he lost the spade finesse and his contract.

It was a fine slam contract. It lost because clubs failed to break, the spade finesse was wrong and West put up a genius defense.

There Is NO Substitute

Who am I? Where am I going? What is the meaning of life? These are familiar questions uttered by the youth of today. And their search for answers is as diverse as it is intense. They delve into philosophy, poetry, and non-Christian religions. They follow eastern mysticism and western science. They experiment with black magic, drugs, and the cult of the supernatural. And yet, after the experiments are concluded and the final observations made, the only information that is remembered and usable is the information that directly relates to Christianity. All the rest is discarded as waste.

No matter how long or how hard we look, there is no acceptable substitute for God, His Son and His Word. They answer all questions and enable us to solve all problems. They give the needed guidelines. Nothing else makes it because, in the final analysis, nothing else is real. There is no substitute.

So They May See - Philippians 2:1-15 - So They May Hear

IF THERE BE therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,

2. Fulfill ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.

3. Let nothing be done through strife or vain-glory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.

4. Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.

5. Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:

6. Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

7. But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:

8. And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.

WHEREFORE GOD ALSO hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:

10. That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;

11. And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

12. Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

13. For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

14. Do all things without murmurings and disputings:

15. That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;

16. Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither laboured in vain.

Europe Hails

Selection of

Willie Brandt

By RODNEY PINDER

Associated Press Writer

LONDON (AP) — Leaders and newspapers in Western Europe hailed today the Nobel Peace award to Willy Brandt for his attempt at rapprochement with the Soviet bloc. The Soviet news agency Tass was noncommittal and Moscow morning newspapers made no mention of the award. But perhaps by coincidence Pravda praised Brandt's policies.

A long article in the Soviet Communist party paper, obviously prepared before the announcement Wednesday of the peace prize, said Brandt's government had made "the preservation and insuring of peace" its primary aim.

The award was announced tersely in East Germany and Poland, with the East Germany news agency giving it three lines seven hours after the announcement in Oslo.

Prime Ministers Jacques Chaban Delmas of France, Edward Heath of Britain, Jens Otto Krag of Denmark, Olof Palme of Sweden, Emilio Colombo of Italy, Trygve Bratteli of Norway and Pierre Elliott Trudeau of Canada all expressed pleasure.

"This event is all the more a subject of rejoicing for us in that it rewards the merits of a friend of France," said Chaban Delmas.

Heath declared the "richly deserved" award will be "widely applauded." Said Krag: "Taking the initiative to reconciliation efforts with the Soviet Union and the East European states, Brandt has started a development of historic importance."

Palme praised Brandt's "brave and constructive efforts" and Bratteli said the chancellor was at the center of "new roads toward new contacts, new hope, new cooperation and new security. That is the peaceful work of our times."

Trudeau says Brandt's "realistic and courageous" foreign policy had the potential "of leading to the eventual normalization of your country's relations with its eastern neighbors, to the greater benefit of peace and security in Europe."

The White House said President Nixon was also sending a warm message of congratulations to Brandt.

We wish to express our sincere thanks and appreciation for every service and kindness rendered by our many friends and neighbors during the illness of our mother.

No Oriole on All-Star Baseball Team

By DICK JOYCE
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The National League dominated the 1971 Associated Press Major League All-Star baseball team by landing players on all but two berths on the 10-man squad.

Mickey Lolich of the Detroit Tigers was named the left-handed pitcher ahead of Vida Blue of the Oakland A's and Tony Oliva of the Minnesota Twins was chosen to one of the outfield spots as the AL representatives.

The world champion Pittsburgh Pirates and the Chicago Cubs each placed two players in the annual poll of sports writers and sportscasters announced Thursday in which 285 participated prior to the league playoffs and World Series.

The Pirates landed outfielder Willie Stargell and catcher Manny Sanguillen on the squad while the Cubs are represented by second baseman Glenn Beckert and right-handed pitcher Ferguson Jenkins. The Chicago hurler beat out Tom Seaver of the New York Mets. The other outfield berth went to slugger Hank Aaron of the Atlanta Braves while the rest of the infield consisted of first baseman Lee May of the Cincinnati Reds, third baseman Joe Torre of the St. Louis Cardinals and shortstop Maury Wills of the Los Angeles Dodgers.

Aaron, who enjoyed a banner season with a .327 batting average, a career high 47 homers and 118 runs batted in, drew the most votes, 230. Stargell, the National League home run king with 48, was next in the outfield voting with 208.

Oliva, the American League batting champion with a .337 average, was far back in third place with 180 votes.

Beckert, who batted .342 ran away with the second base berth, drawing 223 while runner-up Cookie Rojas of the Kansas City Royals collected 15. Beckert is the lone repeater from last year.

In the closest balloting, Wills, who batted .281 and was a Dodger sparkplug, nipped Fred Patek of the Royals, 66-53.

Baltimore, the American League champion, failed to place a player on the first team. Third baseman Brooks Robinson and outfielder Frank Robinson, though, made the second team.

Roberto Clemente, who led the Pirates to their World Series triumph, placed fourth in the outfield voting with 92. He was followed by Bobby Murcer of the New York Yankees, 56, and Frank Robinson, 36.

Sanguillen, another Pirate Series star and .319 hitter during the regular season, won the catching spot by drawing 180 votes to 51 for Johnny Bench of the Reds.

Torre, the NL's leading hitter (.363) and RBI-man (137),

Thinks Hogs Will Win by 37-7 Score

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Either Arkansas or North Texas State will take a statistical beating Saturday at Fayetteville.

The ninth-ranked Razorbacks have passed for an average of 220 yards a game and the Eagles' pass defense has surrendered an average of 68 yards a game and has not allowed a touchdown pass.

It's doubtful, however, if Brigham Young, Weber State, New Mexico State, Akron or Louisville has a passer the equal of Arkansas' Joe Ferguson.

Ferguson has completed 86 of 143, a 60.1 percentage, for 1,237 yards and nine touchdowns and ranks second in the nation in total offense with an average of 220.7 yards a game. Last week, Ferguson earned National Back of the Week honors after completing 14 of 24 passes for 249 yards and three touchdowns in a 31-7 victory over Texas.

The Eagles lost their first four games but upset Louisville, the defending champion in the Missouri Valley Conference, 20-17 last week. Sophomore quarterback Rick Shaw, who had missed the past five weeks with a knee injury, sparked the offense. He engineered touchdown drives of 80 and 81 yards and completed five of his last nine passes.

Shaw was named Offensive Player of the Week in the MVC while two teammates, safety Hurles Scales and linebacker Glynn Hatchel, shared honors as the conference's top defensive performers.

North Texas State Coach Rod Rust says the Louisville game was the Eagles' best performance of the season.

"We established a new level of performance to build on," he said.

The Eagles will have to build in a hurry to reach the Razorbacks' level.

ARKANSAS 35, NORTH TEXAS STATE 7.

Arkansas State University make its only Little Rock appearance of the season Saturday night against Abilene Christian and the Indians must win to keep alive their hopes of gaining a share of the Southland Conference championship.

ASU has won the SLC the past three years and was favored to make it four in a row. Two weeks ago, the Indians dropped a nonconference game to Southern Illinois and then last week lost a fumble at the Louisiana Tech two and suffered a 28-27 conference setback.

Another loss would be disastrous. ASU 24, ABILENE CHRISTIAN 20.

Last week's record was 5-2, setting the season's percentage at .800.

Here are other predictions involving Arkansas college teams:

Southern State 17, State College of Arkansas 14.
Henderson 13, UA-Monticello 7.

Ouachita 20, Harding 7.
Arkansas Tech 27, Missouri Southern 13.

Yary Thinks Smith Having Best Year

By PAT THOMPSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
MINNEAPOLIS-ST. PAUL (AP) — The only sound in the Minnesota Vikings' meeting room was the whirring of a movie projector.

Ron Yary, the 6-foot-5½, 265-pound offensive right tackle, watched intently as No. 78 of the Baltimore Colts thundered off the line of scrimmage, slammed a forearm into an opponent and exploded into the offensive backfield.

"I think he's having his best year," says Yary, whose assignment Monday night in the National Football League television special will be to block Bubba Smith, listed by the Colts at 6-8, 265.

"He's one of the strongest people in football today—enormous strength and he's quick off the ball," says Yary.

"From what I've seen of him now and in the past, he's got a better pass rush than at any previous time. He's one of the better defensive ends in football."

Smith and Yary will provide only a frame of the crucial game between two NFL giants with 4-1 records at 9 p.m. EDT, at Metropolitan Stadium, and it will be the first time the two highly regarded linemen have played against each other.

When the Vikings crushed the Colts 52-14 in the second game of the 1969 season, Yary had not yet been activated because military reserve duty delayed his arrival at training camp.

Yary, biggest of Minnesota's offensive linemen, will spot Smith some height and possibly weight but says "size isn't important. If he's got the credentials, and he does, it's difficult to beat him especially when he's got all those tools. He's got them all—strength, quickness, moves and size."

How will Yary attack those strengths? "Until the action begins you don't know really what you're going to do. It's hard to size him up on film. We'll see what works."

And Yary is spending more than an hour a day watching Bubba on film, but won't take the projector home with him. "An hour a day of watching him is enough," Yary said respectfully.

Yary, a fourth year veteran out of the University of Southern California, is one of the few Viking offensive linemen to have escaped a rash of injuries that has dogged his team, and Coach Bud Grant is very relieved about that.

"Yary has, in a very short time, become an outstanding player," Grant says. "He has the potential to be All-Pro for the next 10 years. If he isn't already the best offensive tackle in the game, he's mighty close."

Bobkittens Remain Undefeated

By ALAN FOSTER

Superb defense, outstanding offense and overall co-operation gave Hope's Junior Bobkittens a 7-0 victory last night at Magnolia over the Panther cubs.

The only score of the game came after a fumble recovery on the Magnolia 13 yard line. The touchdown came when Larry Johnson blasted through the cub line for a three yard touchdown with 2:00 left in the first period. Martindales pat split the uprights and Hope led 7-0.

The first quarter ended with Magnolia driving on the 50 yard line, but on the second quarter's second play Curtis East recovered a cub fumble to give the offense.

The first half ended right after the Kittens gave up the ball on Downs at the Cub 27.

From there on out no one really made a threat until Magnolia broke a draw play to the Kittens' 23. With 0:17 left in the game, but Hope's defense held by breaking up three straight Magnolia passes.

It would be impossible to pick three or four standouts so here are 12 defensive men that were jubilant when this one was over: Thomas Williams, Eugene Tyree, Clay Osteen, Larry Johnson, Jim Rhodes, Jimmy Howard, Rusty Cole, Larry Butler, Jud Martindale, Curtis East, James Robinson and defensive Captain Willard Willmon.

Divisional Leaders Meet Monday

BALTIMORE (AP) — Bubba Smith has been watching "X" rated films of Ron Yary all week, but on Monday night the football adversaries will be involved in strictly family television entertainment.

That's when the Baltimore Colts and Minnesota Vikings, both divisional leaders with 4-1 records, clash in a nationally televised (ABC) National Football League game which includes a matchup of Smith against Yary.

Although Smith is in his fifth season as a Baltimore defensive end and Yary, an offensive tackle, is starting his fourth season, they have never opposed each other.

To get prepared, both have been seriously studying game films to pick up valuable information. Bubba admits to being impressed, but not to the point of running scared.

"He's a big cat, one of the biggest tackles I'll go against all year," Smith said of the 6-foot-5, 265-pound Yary.

"He's been overpowering a lot of people in the films I've seen," said Smith, who is 6-8 and 265. "After practicing against Carl Eller all year, he's bound to be pretty good by now."

"Yary looks good," Bubba said, "but there's no sense in sitting around worrying about him. I'll just try to play the game the way I know best."

"If I try to do different things just to confuse him, he'll have me beat already."

John Sandusky, Baltimore's defensive line coach, concurred with that observation.

"You can't change your game," he said. "You've got to do what you do best."

"Bubba has been double-teamed a lot," Sandusky said. "When that happens, you know a player has respect as a pass rusher. Bubba never sees a lot of one-on-one blocking."

Noting that Smith was staying after practice to study more Yary films, Sandusky said: "The longer a player is in the league, the more he realizes he has to do something extra to get an edge."

"But no matter how much studying you do, you've got to see what happens on the field and then make adjustments." "For the first few minutes," Bubba said, "I guess we'll both be feeling each other out to see what we can do. Neither team can afford to lose, so it ought to be a good game."

Trevino and Casper See Gold Light

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Golf Writer
NAPA, Calif. (AP) — Billy Casper and Lee Trevino each think they're ready to start grabbing gold on the golfing fairways again.

"I think I found it out there today," said Casper Thursday after a first-round 67 in the $150,000 Kaiser International Open Golf Tournament.

"I think I'm ready to start playing golf again," said Trevino, who shot a 69.

Casper and Trevino headed a huge field of tightly bunched challengers to Georgia natives Hugh Royer and Tom Aaron, who had six-under-par 66s Thursday for the first-round lead.

Casper was just a stroke back and Trevino was well within striking distance as the touring pros took advantage of ideal playing conditions to make a mockery of par 72 on the North and South courses at the Silverado Country Club.

The other at 67 were J. C. Snead, Al Geiberger, Mike Bill, Jim Colbert and Larry White.

Eight more followed at 68 with Trevino and 17 others at 69. That left 34 players within three strokes of each other. In all, 85 players, more than half the field, matched or bettered par.

Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player are not competing.

Casper, who has failed to win this season for the first time in 16 years, found a new set of irons to his liking. He missed only one green, didn't make a bogey and was flying his shots dead to the flag with monotonous regularity.

Trevino shot his 69 without benefit of a practice round. "I feel good physically and I think I am mentally ready to play again," said Trevino, who had an emergency operation shortly after making his unprecedented sweep of the American, Canadian and British open titles. He hasn't been a factor in a tournament since.

The 35-year-old Royer, winner of the Western Open a year ago, had a chance to take the lead alone but lipped out a four-foot birdie putt on the final hole.

Final Rites for Former Indian Owner

CLEVELAND (AP) — Funeral services will be held Monday for William Daley, the former owner of the Cleveland Indians and president of Otis & Co., a private banking firm, who died here Thursday.

Services will be at St. Gregory the Great Church in South Euclid.

Daley, who was 79, died in Cleveland Clinic. He had been ill since January and entered the Clinic Monday for tests.

Daley became majority stockholder of the Indians in 1956 and was named president in 1962. He later owned the now defunct Seattle Pilots.

O'Brien Third to Reach 3,000 Mark

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Twelve-time Western Harness driving champion Joe O'Brien has become the third man in harness racing history to drive in 3,000 victories.

O'Brien, 54, a resident of Shafter, Calif., won his 3,000th race at Hollywood Park Thursday night when he directed Royal Rock Hal to a mild upset in the first race.

O'Brien later won the fifth and seventh races. He joins Billy Haughton and Herve Filimon in the 3,000-race winner's circle.

Figured to Roll Along

By KEN RAPPOPORT

Associated Press Sports Writer
Oklahoma makes a Wish and Kansas State Coach Vince Gibson says a prayer Saturday.

The second-ranked Sooners send their Wishbone-T offense against Kansas State in one of Saturday's top college football games, prompting this reaction from Gibson: "You pray you don't get killed."

He has a point. Oklahoma has won five straight with a powerhouse crew that includes quarterback Jack Mildren and halfbacks Joe Wylie and Greg Pruitt, who has gained 421 yards rushing in the last two games.

"They're unbelievable," says Gibson. "They're a super football team. They have super speed."

They also have more confidence than last year, according to Gibson.

"That's the big difference between Oklahoma last year and this," said Gibson. "A fumble doesn't bother them because they know they can come back. They can't get quite excited about us after the way we've been stinking up the place the last few weeks."

The Wildcats have a 2-4 record after straight losses to Colorado, Kansas and Iowa State.

Nebraska, 6-0, the nation's No. 1-ranked team, visits Oklahoma State 3-1 in another big Saturday match. The mighty Cornhuskers held Kansas to a minus 42 yards rushing last week.

Third-ranked Michigan, 6-0, which has posted three shutouts in six games, takes on Minnesota.

Pacers Take First Step in Score Settling

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Indiana Pacers have taken their first step in settling a score with the Utah Stars.

The Pacers won the American Basketball Association's regular-season Western Division championship last season, finishing one game ahead of Utah. But then they wound up one game behind the Stars in the playoffs, bowing four games to three. Since then, the Pacers have been looking for revenge.

They got their first chance Thursday night—and made the most of it, overcoming the Stars 125-122.

It was the Pacers' fourth victory without a loss this season and put them in undisputed possession of first place in the West Division—one game in front of Utah. The loss was the Stars first in four games.

In other ABA games, Virginia rallied for a 103-99 victory over Dallas, and the Floridians defeated Memphis 117-113.

There were no games in the National Basketball Association.

Indiana trailed Utah 115-109 with four minutes remaining, before outscoring the Stars 16-7.

Center Mel Daniels, the league's Most Valuable Player last season, paced Indiana with 33 points. Roger Brown contributed 30 points and Rick Mount added 27.

Zelmo Beaty topped Utah with 27 points before fouling out.

Charlie Scott's 21 second-half points helped Virginia erase a 52-46 halftime deficit and beat Dallas for its third victory in four games. Scott finished with 33 points. Squires' rookie Julius Erving collected 26 points and 16 rebounds.

Don Freeman was high for Dallas with 26 points.

The Floridians, also 3-1, broke a 111-111 tie against Memphis on Warren Armstrong's twisting jump shot with 34 seconds remaining. Larry Jones followed with a steal for a layup and two free throws with nine seconds left, sealing the victory.

Jones led all scorers with 30 points. Armstrong and Mack Calvin each had 26 for the Floridians. Larry Cannon topped the Pros with 29 points, one more than Bob Warren.

Redskins to Get Toughest Test Sunday

By ED SCHUYLER JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — The Washington Redskins, the only unbeaten team in the National Football League, will get their toughest test of the season Sunday—and they will pass it with a victory over the Kansas City Chiefs.

In the other big game of the weekend, the Minnesota Vikings will eke out a victory over the Baltimore Colts.

That's how it looks to this picker who was 10-3 last week for a three-week total of 26-12-1.

Picking 'em:

Washington 24, Kansas City 23—with Larry Brown and Charley Harraway, Washington has the running that will allow Bill Kilmer to pass against and make the Chiefs the Redskins' sixth straight victim. Kansas City has the home field and that old standby—momentum—after a season-opening loss.

Minnesota 20, Baltimore 17—Minnesota's defense against Baltimore's running game, with the Vikings' coming out on top in this meeting two once-beaten powers on Monday night.

San Diego 31, Buffalo 21—the only thing different this week for winless Buffalo is that this game is on a Saturday night.

Detroit 31, Chicago 6—Detroit will eventually wear down a good Chicago defense
